Re: Robert F. Schermerhorn Trust A

Dear Mr. Newman:

It has been some time since we communicated with you regarding any thoughts which you might have regarding the currency collection. We are still anxious to work out a program of disposing of the collection on a reasonable basis. We would appreciate hearing from you and receiving any suggestion which you might have at this time. We would further like any comments regarding the status of the currency market at this time.

Very truly yours,

Re: Robert F. Schermerhorn Trust A

Dear Mr. Hart:

I have just returned from the Galapagos Islands and have your letter of March 25, 1970.

The position of the stock market is such that this would be a very poor time to dispose of the collection.

The American Numismatic Association, which is the major collectors organization of the United States, is having its annual meeting in St. Louis, in August, and at that time I will have a chance to feel the situation out with some of my friends without disclosing the source of the available material.

I hope something satisfactory develops from these inquiries.

Please give my regards to Mrs. Entriken.

Cordially yours,

Re: Robert F. Schermerhorn Trust A

Dear Mr. Hart:

During the American Numismatic Association convention, I had a long talk with Q. David Bowers about the Schermerhorn collection. I did not disclose the name of the collection or its locale and only described, generally, the content. I have known David Bowers for a long time. His firm is Hathaway and Bowers, Inc., 11975 E. Florence Avenue, Santa Fe Springs, California, 90670. I have always found him completely reliable and honest. I have found that he is able to get high prices for the material he sells.

I would like your permission to disclose to him what collection I was discussing with him and its content. Would you be nice enough to let me know if I can proceed along these lines.

If I am satisfied with his suggestions he will be glad to come to Dallas, I am sure, and I can attend or not, as you see fit.

Kindest regards.

Mrs. Entriken and the bank would like to go forward with the suggestion made in your letter relative to Mr. Bowers. In the event it works out that Mr. Bowers should inspect the collection, we would like for you to be present. Mrs. Entriken will be out of town for several weeks, but she will be available anytime after October 15. We will, of course, reimburse you for any of your expenses in coming to Dallas. Dear Mr. Newman:

We are enclosing a copy of a letter received from Mr. Abner Kreisberg who has inquired several times about acquiring the entire collection. We do not have any particular information regarding his reputation or financial ability to do this. We also have a private collector who has purchased several items that indicated an interest in the entire collection.

We are wondering if you can assist us in an overall valuation and pricing that would permit us to make such a sale. If you feel this is the wrong approach, we would of course like to have your further comments and suggestions.

We would assume that the currency market may be somewhat improved at present, but we do not have any current information on the timing for a sale. We will appreciate hearing from you.

Re: Robert Schermerhorn Trust A

Dear Mr. Hart:

The market price of and general interest in United States paper money has substantially improved with the stock market during the recent period, just as you had hoped. William Donlon, a dealer-collector of paper money is running his own auction of his substantially large note collection this coming May. The prices realized will be published. I have ordered a catalogue for you and for us. Naturally, it will not have most of the choice pieces in your group but it may stimulate buying interest very substantially.

On April 3, 1971 I am going to California to give a talk and will see Abner Kreisberg, whom I have known for many years. I will also see David Bowers. It might be well to discuss whether they would wish to submit offers for the collection, with the understanding that such offers will not be disclosed by you, but that you have not determined whether you will sell at this time. Naturally, the private collector with whom you have contact, and perhaps a very few others, could do likewise. This type of offer to purchase should be done with just a few parties who are financially able and responsible people, for the entire professional field will be at your doorstep as they were before. The most important position to convey is that you are not convinced about selling at this time but will consider. Your past record proves this.

Unless you have an objection, I can talk to Kreisberg, to sound him out, as he has the financial means. I would like the prior correspondence, if any, to his February 23, 1971 letter, or a memorandum as to his past contact with you or with Mrs. Entriken.

Re: Robert F. Schermerhorn Trust A

Dear Mr. Newman:

Thank you very much for your letter of March 15. Mrs. Entriken has advised us that she has not had any particular acquaintship with Mr. Kreisberg. She first was introduced to him a number of years ago when she attended a numismatic convention in San Monica. Since that time he has generally written to her once a year inquiring if he might buy the collection.

We would be in favor of proceeding along the lines you set forth to obtain several bids for the collection provided you would be willing to assist us with a recommendation as to the acceptability of any offer submitted. In other words, our dilemma in the past has been our inability to properly evaluate an offer for the total collection. The sale of the entire collection at one time is appealing to Mrs. Entriken and the bank if we can obtain a satisfactory price.

At one time, we had some discussion regarding compensation or a commission that might be paid as a result of your assistance to us in negotiating a sale. We would appreciate your advice concerning your thoughts on this matter.

Therefore, we do authorize you to pursue the matter on your trip to California in April if you can assist us as outlined above. We have at least one responsible person who has indicated an interest in the collection and we would want to make it available for inspection to him as well as Mr. Kreisberg or any others you feel are qualified to submit an offer.

Very truly yours,

Dear Abner:

I enjoyed our afternoon together and look forward to others.

I have received your various mailings and thank you for them.

I thought that you were going to give me a piece by piece estimate on what you thought the items on the list would bring if auctioned. This is important in measuring the desirability of selling by the auction route or selling at all at this time.

The fakes you sent me are at hand. There were a few common foreign pieces among them which are genuine but worthless and they shall be given to Boy Scouts.

The auction contract you sent is certainly brief and to the point. I presume that the catalogue provisions are mostly meant for the buyer. This, however, is of secondary importance at this time.

You advertised an 1853 $20 U.S. Assay Office uncirculated at $750. Would you send it on approval if you still have it in stock.

I look forward to hearing from you further.

I received your letter of April 30th and glad to hear from you. I am sorry that the "counterfeits" were not desirable but we will send others when they become available.

I trust that you received the $20 Assay we sent on approval.

With regard to the Schermerhorn currency collection, we have gone over it carefully and I have indicated the price we believe that it would bring in an auction sale.

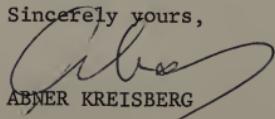

As regards the sheets of Educational, it is very difficult to know what two or three bidders will do price-wise as they may go far above our expectations and they probably will. In any case, I believe they would sell anywhere up to $15,000.

If you have any other questions I will be glad to answer them. Incidentally, Jerry will be at the St. Louis convention.

I would appreciate receiving an inventory of the foreign gold as these are also of great interest to me.

Dear Mr. Newman:

In accordance with your request, we are enclosing a schedule of the items in the collection. The condition represents an assessment made by Mr. Philpott in 1966, and would need to be checked by someone else as it may be on the conservative side. You will note in some cases he downgraded a previous assessment of the condition and we have reflected both grades for informational purposes. It would also be necessary to double check this entire list before showing it or making any representations about it. We presume the Friedberg number is correct, but this also would need verification. The gold coins would have to be examined and described as we have not attempted to do this.

Thank you for contacting us and we will be looking forward to your further recommendations.

Mr. Eric P. Newman
P. O. Box 14020
St. Louis, Mo. 63178

Dear Mr. Newman:

It is mighty nice of you to consider me as a possible outlet for the collection you described in your telephone call today. In my library I have your "1804 Dollar Dollar" book and "Early Paper Money of America". Had to give up coins and lost the little knowledge I had of our early paper money, when I seriously became interested in issues 1861 to date.

I find that two Sale catalogs were sent to you complimentary, one on March 25, and the second on April 14. I am pleased to send another with Prices Realized. It has already been mailed. I believe in advertising and the many weeks of advance publicity surely accounted for the many bids received on the May 22 sale.

Names of actual bidders, I believe are worth ten to one of curiosities seekers. As stated many, many letters of praise and expressed satisfaction are on file.

The May 22 Sale comprised my own collection only, excepting 3 or 4 uncut sheets, received on consignment, and sold on a commission basis. Cost of catalog was rather high, and I hope you agree that it was a nice job. I spared no white space and used rather lengthy descriptions. I believe that paper money prospects are older men who have trouble ready 6 point descriptions.

Three methods of disposal are available to your friends. First outright purchase. This plan would net less but is an advantage if they wanted the deal closed quickly. Two plans of consignment are available: auction or disposal thru regular channels of lists sent out by direct mail, advertising in various trade papers, and bourse sales.

The latter plan would require much more time of course but selling price could be agreed upon. Auction sale would require about six months, including issuance of catalogs, invoicing and collection of amounts due. If sold thru usual channels as mentioned above, remittance would be made every two weeks for sales made.

Under either plan a 20% commission would be charged, on selling price of the notes. This commission would not be charged on face value of notes of $50.00 denomination and over. You can readily see that deducting $20.00 on a $100.00 note that sold for $125.00 or $150.00 would be costly to the owner. Mr. Grinnell explained this to me after his first sale by Max Mehl. In those days the $100.00 note might only bring $110.00!

Mr. Eric P. Newman-

All material consigned is covered by Floater Form of insurance. A.D.T. alarm system is used in our offices which are located in the Hotel Utica. We have no shop and very few clients who "drop in". For security and other reasons, I prefer to deal by mail only.

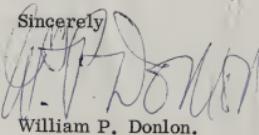

I am sure any additional terms or suggestions could be worked out to you satisfaction. At this time I have two consignments for auction with which I had planned to include some of my own stock and several items overlooked in my personal collection sale.

Thank you Mr. Newman for contacting me. I hope a satisfactory arrangement under one of the plans can be worked out. I assure you that all dealings will be handled in a strictly ethical. At this age I cannot risk spoiling the rather enviable reputation I have built up for square dealing.

I await further word from you and if you come to A.N.A. in Washington next month, be sure to visit our bourse.

WPD/d

Sincerely

William P. Donlon.

Re: Robert F. Schermerhorn Trust A

Dear Mr. Newman:

It appears that Mr. Harry W. Bass, Jr., who is a substantial oil investor in Dallas, has an interest in the collection. We understand Mr. Bass has previously been interested in coins, but he now would like to consider expanding his collection to currency. Mr. Bass wanted to inspect the collection on his return from Europe in three or four weeks. Mrs. Entriiken indicated that she would want to sell the entire collection when she spoke to Mr. Bass. This leads us back to the need for a value that can be used for a realistic and reasonable sale of the collection. We are most hopeful that you might assist us as to the valuation before Mr. Bass returns. In addition, your comments and suggestions as to the best method of dealing with this type of purchaser would be helpful.

In the event the individual investor, such as Mr. Bass, does not materialize in the near future, we want to go forward with a program to sell the collection. We realize that you are fully occupied with other matters. As previously discussed with you, we need to have your guidance to secure a fair and reasonable sale.

Dear Dick:

I was pleased to learn that Harry Bass, Jr. has shown an interest in the collection which you hold. I was with him in Washington, D. C. last month attending an auction. He has been collecting and donating numismatic books to libraries and has also donated considerable money for binding numismatic books. I did not realize he was a collector of coins until he got involved with two Dallas coin collectors who recently had financial difficulties and Harry Bass, Jr., according to the coin newspaper, filed suit to recover some of his numismatic material from one of the banks.

I do not know if he has the experience in United States paper money to appreciate the rarity of your material but that should not take long if he inquires. In any event, an evaluation will be in your hands by the time he returns from Europe.

I had a nice talk with Mrs. Entriken a week or so ago and am glad that the contact with Mr. Bass has been made.

Re: Robert F. Schermerhorn Trust A

Dear Dick:

I have prepared a valuation of the items in the Schermerhorn collection and enclose the same herewith. This is a retail valuation based on the present popularity of and competition for the items. The 6th edition of Friedberg is substantially relied on because it is generally accepted by both buyers and sellers.

The total retail value is $189,684.00. If you sell to one customer, you may want to discount it 10% in order to make it more attractive. The normal cost of selling at auction would be about 20% so this factor should be considered.

I hope you find these calculations helpful.

In situations where there are many of the same item you may not wish to require the buyer to buy more than a couple of them and, in that event, the others could be disposed of routinely.

If there is any further help which you need, please let us know.

Keep us advised.

Sincerely,

Re: Robert F. Schermerhorn Trust A

Dear Mr. Newman:

Thank you for your letter of September 30 with the indicated retail value of the collection. In the event we have a prospective purchaser for the entire collection, would you be available to assist us with the showing of it? As indicated in our last letter, we would want to double-check the description and condition of the items to be certain our listing is correct.

In the event we do not have a buyer for the entire collection, do you have any suggestion regarding an auctioneer and the method that would be used to protect the trust?

We still have the problem concerning the Korean-Chinese gold coins which have never been valued. The last time we discussed it, you did not have any particular recommendation of someone who might be able to assist with these items. If you have anyone in mind, we would appreciate having the name.

We appreciate your continuing interest and assistance, and will look forward to the comments to the above questions.

Very truly yours,

Re: Robert F. Schermerhorn Trust A

Dear Mr. Hart:

If you have a prospective purchaser for the entire collection, I will be glad to try to assist you in the showing of it and explanation of it.

It is fundamental that you do not take a position on the condition of the pieces in making any sale and that you say that the gradation is made in good faith and is subject to differences of opinion.

As to the Korean-Chinese gold coins, there has been an upsurge in interest in Oriental gold, principally by Japanese collectors. There are several dealers who could handle an auction of it but I would like to know if you have a specific list of the coins so that we know how many pieces are in the collection and what quality the material is. I am thinking of Abner Kreisberg as one possibility and Superior Stamp and Coin Company as another, and, possibly, Hans Schulman as a third. If the coins are in envelopes it might be advisable to photocopy a group of the envelopes on one sheet in order to avoid copying foreign languages or symbols.

Sincerely yours,

Re: Robert F. Schermerhorn Trust A

Dear Mr. Newman:

Thank you very much for your letter of October 12. Mrs. Entriiken will contact you directly concerning the date when the collection may be shown to Mr. Harry Bass, Jr.

Mr. W. A. Philpott, Jr. passed away several days ago at the age of 87.

Mrs. Entriiken will also contact you further concerning description of the gold coins. Since they are unusual and rare, it may be that an auction for these particular items would be the better course to follow. You may recall that they are attractively mounted in plastic cases with descriptions under each coin.

Again, we appreciate your assistance and offer to come to Dallas. Mrs. Entriiken will be in touch with you concerning the date that is worked out.

Very truly yours,

Dear Abner and Jerry:

I don't want you to think I have forgotten you.

I finally received a list of the foreign gold coins on hand in the Schermerhorn Estate and am enclosing herewith a photocopy of the list.

If you have any thoughts as to where to place any of the rarities in this group, please let me hear from you.

I could recommend a private sale if the offer was satisfactory and a fair commission arrangement for you could be arranged with respect to the sale.

The paper money matter is still open.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Mr. Newman:

We are delighted that you can be with us on Monday, November 1st. The meeting has been set us for 9:30 A.M.

I am enclosing a most inadequate copy of the Gold Coins - Mr. Sheppard looked at these years ago and gave me a price taken from Gold Coins of the World and Hans Schulman's auction catalogue. He really was not familiar with them.

Feel when you see them
that it will be more helpful.
However, I am enclosing the photographs which, I am afraid, are not too helpful. Please return those to me.

Please let us know
if you can join us on Sunday Evening for dinner
(Oct. 31) -

Yours most truly,
(Mrs) Louise Estridge

Dear Mrs. Entriken:

Thank you for your nice note. It was so enjoyable visiting your home and seeing everything from your cook going fishing to the gold nuggets.

Our organization acknowledges receipt of the bound Numismatists from 1888 to 1922, the Narremore broadside and the 1914 Federal Reserve Note proofs. These gifts are most appreciated by this organization. We will, after some further investigation, send you a valuation for your use in determining your 1971 income tax deduction for contributions. These will be fine additions to our library items.

As to the other books you have on hand, the Gouge 1835 will be an improvement to our collection of them. We believe the Knox and Limpert will be of use at the American Numismatic Association, 818 North Cascade, Colorado Springs, Colorado, if a gift to them appeals to you. You might keep the Bonlon until your collection is sold.

Many thanks for your courtesy and kindness.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Eric:

It was nice visiting with you in Oklahoma. We continued on to New York, Boston, etc. and we just got home the other day.

With regard to the list of 14 foreign gold coins, I would suggest that you have them shipped to us and we could include them in our next auction sale and I am sure that you would be well pleased with the results.

In order to properly evaluate the coins we would have to see them for condition, dates and also to get the Friedberg numbers, etc.

With regard to the paper money, this would be an excellent time to sell as prices have increased between 15% and 20% since we last corresponded. I would suggest that you do something with the paper money as soon as possible before the "wheel turns" and it loses favor again.

We are now cataloguing for our next sale and this would be an excellent time to sell. Let me hear from you.

With best regards,

Sincerely yours,

Dear George:

I need an appraisal, for income tax deduction purposes for a third party, on some early NUMISMATISTS and would appreciate it if you could give it to me as you are more familiar with such prices than I am.

Vols. 1 through 35, being 1888/1922. These are bound, usually with three or four years in a volume.

For some reason, April, 1918 is missing and July and October, 1920 are missing. The content is in nice condition.

I would appreciate the valuations broken into categories, namely, X dollars per year from 1888 to 1893; Y dollars per year from 1894 to 1900, etc. Whatever way you break it up is fine with me.

Kindest regards.

Re: Robert F. Schermerhorn Trust A

Dear Mr. Newman:

I met with Mike Brownlee last Friday concerning the collection. He took the position that Mr. Bass would not make an offer without disclosure of our selling price. I deferred to make any commitment during the meeting. Subsequently, Mrs. Entriken and I discussed the matter further, and we later advised Mike that we would not negotiate further without an indication from Mr. Bass as to the price he would be willing to pay for it. We have not had any further communication with them, and it may well be that they will not pursue the matter further.

In an auction this month of some nice U. S. paper money, it ought to give us a clue as to how prices are going. I will follow up on it.

I am enclosing a Xerox of a recent article which mentions the Schermerhorn Estate Demand Notes and thought you should know about it.

I have written Abner Kreisberg suggesting an auction with over-all guaranteed prices to see how it strikes him. I don't want you to get involved in that negotiation until I see whether he would be willing to handle it on such a basis.

Dear Abner:

Perhaps I could suggest to the Schermerhorn Estate that you would guarantee to them 90% of the value of the U.S. paper money collection if you auctioned it and that you would take one-third of any excess it brought over the 100% value. In other words, from 90% to 100% you receive 10% and over 100% you took one-third. The value might be along the lines you wrote me. You might thereby earn an extra amount by such a formula. I will not write them on this until I see how it appeals to you.

The foreign gold could be your regular 20% commission. There would be other stipulations, but how does this approach appeal to you?

With regard to your letter of April 3rd, I guess I misunderstood the intent of your letter. The idea of 90% of the appraised valuation sounds fine; and your other suggestion of 1/3 over 100%, etc. would be satisfactory.

Please send me a copy of the inventory I returned to you with the valuations so that I may have a complete file.

The foreign gold would be on a 20% commission and any other stipulations I am sure would be satisfactory to both of us.

Mr. Abner Kreisberg
344 North Beverly Drive
Beverly Hills, Calif. 90210

Dear Abner:

You asked me to send you the figures which you submitted on the Schermerhorn Estate. I am enclosing herewith a Xerox of what you submitted. There are some items which are scratched out and those are items which were sold many years ago. The date of sale is listed in those cases.

A few of your figures may need adjustment, upward, but I wanted you to see those you submitted so as to try to proceed with a proposition on your behalf.

My kindest regards.

Sincerely,

EPN/atb

Re: Robert F. Schermerhorn Trust A

Dear Dick:

I enclose herewith a photocopy of the letter received from Abner Kreisberg Corporation dated May 1, 1972, and a photocopy of my letter to them dated April 3, 1972. This has the effect of giving you 90% of the value of the paper money, for sure, and an opportunity to participate in two-thirds of the excess over 100%. There would be a problem about averaging, as some pieces might bring more and some pieces might bring less and I want you to give that consideration. For example, if two pieces worth $1,000 each were sold respectively for $700 and $1300, we would receive on the average valuation basis only $1800 but on the individual item basis $900 on the one and $1100 on the other. If some pieces are not bid for, then the auctioneer will bid them in at a very minimal amount.

You will also have to consider what kind of security should be required of this firm as it is a corporation. Abner Kreisberg is personally very well fixed so security is part of the requirement.

I will have to adjust, to some extent the appraisals which Kreisberg made as some items were omitted, some are a little out of line, and others he appraised have long since been sold.

At least this will stiffen your hand in other negotiations.

I am sending a copy of this letter directly to Mrs. Entriken.

Sincerely yours,

ERIC P. NEWMAN NUMISMATIC

Re: Robert F. Schermerhorn Trust A

Dear Mr. Newman:

The sale of the currency collection to Mr. Harry W. Bass, Jr. has been completed and delivery made to him.

We do greatly appreciate the assistance which you have rendered to us concerning the collection, and it has been most helpful to have your counseling and advice.

With best regards.

Very truly yours,

Dear Eric:

I haven't heard from you in quite awhile. I wish you would try to give a little time to the paper money and foreign gold.

Prices are strong and the market is very good and I would like to work on this material with you.

Look forward to hearing from you.

Best regards,

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Newman:

I am so relieved to have sold the currency to Harry Bass, Jr. It's good to hear and know that one collector has it. Harry is elated and I am just as happy, so that is good. I feel that we would

Dear Mrs. Entriken:

Your very generous donation to this organization is at hand. I want to express my deep appreciation for your enthusiasm and support of our work.

In our endeavor to preserve the cultural and educational side of numismatics, we find that we come in contact with many fine individuals and want you to know that it is a pleasure to count on you as our friend.

Thank you, again, for your thoughtfulness.

Most sincerely,

EPN/atb

To Dear Eric:

What progress have you made re: Scheerhorn
Coins and Paper Money -

Could you send an inventory of Foreign Gold

Our Austrian Prices have been exceptionally good -

Let me hear from you. Best regards

Abner
